Designed to meet the needs of any office, the Intimus 402 series will shred up to 24 sheets of paper, including paper clips and staples, meeting today's security challenges. Automatic operation starts the shredder the moment confidential documents enter the machine and stops when the job is done - hands free operation clear and simple.

The newly designed horizontal feed makes the Intimus 402 series one of the top choices of all office shredders. Fully featured, simple to use.
